PROFESSIONAL RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Senior Metrics Advisor

October 2020 - March 2025

United States Agency for International Development, Washington, DC

- Serve as a top-level research and methodology expert for USAID globally. Received three Meritorious Honor Awards in recognition of exceptional performance.
- Managed a multi-million dollar portfolio of over 30 research projects from design to dissemination.
- Develop Bureau’s research agenda, identifying priority research questions for effective development programs.
- Lead and conduct statistical analyses to determine effect of USAID programs on key outcomes.
- Lead efforts to translate research into recommendations and integrate recommendations into development programs.
- Hire and supervise research staff, including a Knowledge Management Specialist, AAAS Behavioral Science Fellow, and Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU) Intern.

Co-Principal Investigator

April 2017 - October 2020

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Urbana, IL and Zomba, Malawi

- Designed, managed, and implemented $210,000+ grant for Metaketa II project in Malawi. Metaketa II is an EGAP/DFID funded project to evaluate interventions that increase citizens’ formalization with the state.
- Wrote grant proposal. Developed research question, experimental design, data collection tools, and analysis plan.
- Led field research. Managed 20+ person research team conducting surveys and implementing intervention.
- Organized and presented at dissemination events in Zomba, in Malawi’s capital of Lilongwe, and in Urbana-Champaign.

Lead Researcher

June 2015 – May 2019

Mercy Corps, USA and Nigeria

- Designed and implemented RCT to determine effect of Engaging Communities for Peace in Nigeria (ECPN), a USAID funded peacebuilding program to reduce farmer-pastoralist conflict through cooperative intergroup contact.
- Wrote and received NSF grant. Developed experimental design, data collection instruments, and analysis code. Led data collection and data analysis.
- Led field research. Managed two 10+ person survey teams conducting baseline and endline surveys in rural Nigeria.

Researcher

February 2014 – May 2018

Equal Access International, USA and Nigeria

- Designed and implemented research to evaluate the effect of Arewa24, a U.S. Department of State funded peacebuilding program that broadcasts Hausa-language programming to counter violent extremism in northern Nigeria.
- Designed twenty-four focus groups, in-person surveys of 1500 respondents in six Nigerian states, a field experiment using mobile phone surveys, and a quasi-experimental study of Arewa24 programs.
- Presented results of analysis to U.S. Department of State and at academic conferences.

Research Fellow

May 2016 – August 2016

International Foundation for Electoral Systems (IFES), Washington, D.C.

- Researched the effects of foreign aid on violent conflict using mixed methods & a quasi-experimental design.
- Conducted semi-structured interviews about aid programs with 21 workers at six aid-implementing organizations.
- Presented findings to IFES staff and management and at academic conferences.
